the TEN COMMANDMENTS of TRAVEL

I Thou shalt not expect to find things precisely as they are at home, for thou hast left home to find things different.

II Thou shalt not take anything too seriously, for a carefree mind is the basis for a great vacation.

III Thou shalt not let other tour members get on thy nerves, for thou art paying good money to enjoy thyself.

IV Thou shalt not worry. The person who worrieth hath little joy and few things are fatal.

V Thou shalt not judge all the people of a country by one person with whom thou had a problem.

VI Thou shalt in Rome, do somewhat as the Romans do.

VII Thou shalt be on time, for if thou art late thou shalt make thy own way to the next hotel. Thou shalt carry thy passport at all times, for a traveler without a passport is one without a country.

VIII Thou shalt learn to say "Thank You" in any language. Verily, it is worth more than gold.

IX Thou shalt acquaint thyself with any currency and thou shalt not be cheated.

X Thou art welcome in every land. Treat thy hosts with respect and thou shalt be an honored guest.

NOTE: We have taken considerable effort to provide accurate and up-to-date information; however, all information contained in this TOUROCLOPEDIA® is subject to possible error and change, and we accept no responsibility for any inconveniences or expense, directly or indirectly, resulting from an inaccuracy contained herein.

©2024 Image Tours